Regarding "Ruth Montgomery" - Latest First

Ruth Montgomery is fiction

Ruth Montgomery is fiction. One of her stories in Aliens Among Us referred to visiting a planet on "the other side of The Little Dipper." I plotted the relative positions of stars involved, and the stars of the Little Dipper would look completely different when seen from the star she "visited." Ruth is fiction sold as fact. She has made money playing on people's gullability.

Do the Guides really know

I have read the book "Aliens among us" and have a hard time believing the "Guides" know all. If what you say is true your "Guides" should be able to tell me, Ruth Montgomery, where and when I saw a UFO. Could you ask your "Guides" this and e-mail me the correct information. Otherwise, the information in your book is just pure fiction.

Speculation is creation

Lets not forget the power we have as individuals.It's all about soul growth and evolution along the path.As we change so does Mother and as we grow,the needs of mankind shift and change.

Keep reading or throw out?

Like most prophecies, you have to judge the whole work before throwing them out if one prophecy in particular doesn't come true or exactly as predicted...twice in the Bible Jesus tells his audience that the Second Coming (including the famous passage starting with "There will be wars and rumors of wars") will happen while some of his listeners are still alive. That didn't happen--but I'm not about to throw out the rest of the Bible. As with others, I'm still willing to wait and see what becomes of the rest of Ruth Montgomery's prophecies, preparing for the worst but hoping for the best.
