

Disclaimer for Ufologist Pages

The Ufologists database is not actively maintained at present

The information in each ufologist page is a compilation of documents, claims and data regarding this individual that are available on the internet. All information should be considered tentative and may require additional research to confirm its authenticity. Although we have made a reasonable effort to assure the accuracy of the information on the main index page, errors and omissions are possible, and we will correct them as soon as we are notified of them.

The structure of this page should be neutral, but the documents referenced by it and any evaluations given in quotes may not be. Wherever any non-neutral position, opinion or evaluation is expressed in the referenced documents or in quotes, we will provide a link to a rebuttal upon request. The editor is responsible only for this page itself and not necessarily for any documents that might be referenced by it.

Input requested! The ufologist pages depends on contributors for source material. Please send any corrections, information, documents, reviews or URLs regarding this person or this page to the page sponsor at: webmaster@ufomind.com. See the Ufologist Template \(annotated\) for the categories of information being sought.

We welcome input from the person themselves and will make every effort to assure accuracy. However, these pages are intended only to provide a neutral overview of the subject, and we do not have the resources for extensive maintainance. These pages are not meant to replace a person's own home page, which can be much more detailed and which will be linked from here.
