Regarding "Lee Shargel" - Latest First

Shargel on Bell

Went to the Art Bell archive to access Shargel. There are nine months of shows, no Shargel. If he has no credentials how did he get on the network shows when bonafide, underappreciated researchers are blacklisted? Don't they do their homework. Could they give access to easily discredited bufoons and opportunist to maintain there ignorance and ignore the subject.

Well, first I heard this guy on Art Bell claiming to be a renowned astrophysicist and that there is a companion traveling with the Hale-Bopp comet that is hollow, is four times the size of the earth, is under intelligent control and is emitting a series of mathematical messages. Then I hear he's a machinist in Oregon or something and he's been discredited by showing a bunch of obviously and badly faked photos at a UFO conference. And now I see him on Geraldo Rivera claiming to be the heir to Marshall Applewhite's legacy. As most of you know, Applewhite was the leader of the 39 folks who went to meet the Hale-Bopp companion. This all makes me wonder two things. First, what kind of research does Geraldo's staff do before having someone on as a guest? Second, how far must a person go before he is legally committable? This man, I think, has gone at least far enough. If anyone can hurt the UFO cause, this is the kind of guy that can do it.
