On July 24, I published an interview with Dan ("D.L.") Sherman, who claims to have worked with a secret NSA program receiving communications from alien entities. Readers were invited to send further questions to Sherman, with a cc to me, and I would put them together in another document. Here is the new compendium of questions and answers.
- \*Desert Rat Review of Sherman's Book+ - Review - By Glenn Campbell - Published: 11/6/97 - Source: Desert Rat #38 (Web Zine) <12/6/97 #13>

"Sherman's book seems quite original. It offers a new synthesis of popular themes, including alien abduction, genetic manipulation, government cover-up, alien-government collusion and the growth categories of remote viewing and psychokinesis. Regardless of its veracity, we expect this book to have a significant impact on the direction of the UFO movement."

"Well written, this is one of those books you can't put down. Constantly, I had to keep telling myself that this is supposed to be a true story, but the implications of Mr. Sherman's story are mind boggling indeed."

How to Circumvent the pyramid scheme

Many public libraries carry the book. It can be ordered by interlibrary loan if yours doesn't carry it. I suggest this method of obtaining the book as a means of circumventing the scheme.
