 "He started as director of the first world-wide UFO organization, known as CRIFO (Civilian Research, Interplanetary Flying Objects) and published their monthly newsletter "Orbit" from 1953 to 1957. He worked cooperatively with the USAF Air Defense Command on UFO cases from 1954-57. On some occasions, jets were scrambled on his recommendation to intercept UFOs, but he was not allowed to see the resulting reports. He served as Public Relations Advisor to NICAP (National Investigations Committee on Aerial Phenomena) from 1957-70. He served on the Board of Directors of MUFON (Mutual UFO Network) and as an Associate/Investigator for CUFOS (Center for UFO Studies). He received MUFON's Award of the Year in 1981."
