Description: Founder of Skywatch International

File Code: wilsons Class: ufo

Location: Grand Junction, CO USA

Deceased (1997)

 [Edit This Record | Explanation of Terms | Audit Trail ]

Synopsis: Wilson's "death" was as dubious as his life. Although he founded the Skywatch group and operated a popular mailing list, he was mainly an internet entity who few claim to have met directly. When he "died" in 1997, it was reported only on the internet by an anonymous writer named "Carolyn" who some contend is an alias of Wilson himself. During his "life," his claims about his credentials seemed highly inflated and, to those familiar with military honors, quite impossible. He wanted to be addressed as "Colonel," but this title was never confirmed. He conveniently "died" on the eve of the first Skywatch conference, where the Colonel was to be the star speaker and where he would presumably have to defend his credential claims. In the days leading up to the conference, Wilson rapidly sickened, was hospitalized and passed away -- all in some unknown city as reported only by Carolyn. Some contend he is still with us, surfing the net as a ghost. -- © Glenn Campbell

There is much about Colonel Steve "Wilson"'s life that he will not allow to be known, for good reason. Colonel Wilson is a hunted man. Moving from state to state to evade several attempts on his life, he currently is battling cancer.

"A number of claims and statements about UFOs and an associated government cover-up are attributed to this man, who is also the founder of Skywatch International. A great deal of controversy has surrounded Col Wilson, even as to the question of his very existence. Assuming the man does (or did) indeed exist, there is still doubt in many a mind about whether or not "Wilson" is his real name"
