I must repeat that no evidence regarding Michael Wolf Kruvant's supposed scientific and military background has been provided. I did verify that he is a member of the NY Acad. of Sciences and the Amer. Assoc. for the Advancement of Science and that he claimed many degrees on his applications. They stated they do not check listed credentials. Just pay your money and anybody can join. Dun and Bradstreet has verified that there is no such research organization as claimed by Michael. I checked McGill, MIT (several different places including Physics, alumni, registrar, etc), Cal Tech, Georgetown, the NSC.. no verification of any claim.. no thesis etc.. The MIT legal man stated there is no way to wipe out records. Wolf's book from Dorrance was a subsidy book. You pay and they provide and distribute copies.

Corso was certainly a military man. However, though he claimed to be head of the Army's Foreign Technology Dept. under General Trudeau, the roster for the group shows there were only 2 people in the department. Corso was the junior officer. For reasons unknown, he also signed a sworn statement for Peter Gersten claiming that he had been a member of the National Security Council.

The Eisenhower Library confirmed that he had been connected with the NSC, but was never a member and attended no meetings. He refused to withdraw the claim when asked about it by Gersten..some delusions of grandeur. here, I think.. There is much more to the Corso story but the substantial claims certainly have no substantiation.

These are, of course, not the first fraudulent claims in ufology.. think of William Spaulding, Guy Kirkwood (a.k.a. Mel Noel), Frank Stranges, Robert Scott Lazar. It is interesting that while Lazar only claimed MS degrees from MIT and CIT, (he did attend Pierce Junior College) Wolf claimed PhD's from both places and a law degree from Clinton's Alma Mater Georgetown Univ. and still no diplomas in sight. I am working on the claims of Clark Charles McClelland and claims of conversations with Von Braun about Roswell and a background of 53 years in Aerospace Engineering: Started young I guess since he was born Sept. 5, 1935. He did obtain 12 credits from Brevard County Cmty. College.....
