Regarding "Illinois" - Latest First

(Aug. 27) There have been UFO sightings by Macomb, Illinois for the last 4 or 5 nights. The local news did a story on it last night. It was Ch. 7 - CBS out of Quincy, Illinois. I went out and watched them last night. It was AWESOME!! There's these really bright yellow lights that appear to be staying in the same general area in the sky. They'll come on for only a few seconds at a time. Sometimes there's one, sometimes there's two. Sometimes one will zip off to the right or left and then they'll both dissappear at the same time. It's really funny though because there are all these jets (military I assume) flying around out there like they're looking for something. When the lights come on they'll all turn and head in that direction. Kind of amusing. It's like the UFOs are playing games with them.
