Regarding "The Roswell Incident" - Latest First

Hiders

I definately thind that the US government is hiding a lot of information from us. They will never find out what the aliens want because they dont have the brains to. They only have the brains to kill and do war. I am totaly against that and I will do everything and anything to be abducted by an alien or communicate with one.

-- UFO 9/21/99 (#7)

Roswell, a soviet connection?

On the evidence of many WW2 veterans, who heard stories or were involved with the early nuclear programs, most believe that a russian spy plane launched from one of our neighbors to the south, was the wreckage found in Roswell and is secret today due to politics. The Russians had just developed the bomb and needed to see how to deliver it. Anyone else heard of this?

Roswell-The place of forbidden TRUTH

I belive that something did happen that night and I think that the Government is hi- ding the truth about what actually happened that night in Roswell, Because they will use the alien technology for new weapons to kill, in the case of another World War! Maybe it is true that it was only a weather balloon, maybe this was a desperate need for a coverup to something that is even bigger than Roswell. Maybe they got the rumor going around to get money off the taxes of the merchandise that was/is sold even to this day. So I conclude this cry of hope in the hopes that someday the Government will stop his Encyclopedia of lies and come forth the truth.

Logical Ufology of Roswell

Roswell has more coverups than the 1947 incident. The government has admitted there was a coverup, just not little green men. The real coverup was project mogul. People are looking for explanations. Even if they landed to say high some people wouldn't believe it.
