Regarding "Roswell Crash Sites" - Latest First

why

why does the governments of the world want to keep any information on alien life a secret. If they are hiding the "truth" WHAT could they possibly gain from it (other than new tech) Is it because we of the joe public can't handle it, or choose not to except it!

No nonsens

When the US governement would tell the american people there was an alien crash, most people would probably go balistic. So that is why the government has tried to cover it up.
