(Any opinions expressed below are those of the reviewer.)

Las Vegas Compass Guide by Deke Castleman - There are no lack of fluffy, superficial tourist guides for this mass-market city. This guide is different: It is more of a history book than than a Baedeker. Las Vegas resident Deke Castleman, who also wrote the Nevada Handbook, finds plenty of history to talk about. Okay, so it doesn't extend to the Middle Ages, but the mobsters, hookers and gamblers of the past century are interesting enough. This is also a fine picture book, full of glittery color photos of Vegas's always-temporary attractions. (Published in 1996, the guide is only slightly out of date.) There are sections in the back on the usual tourist nonsense - hotels, restaurants, shopping, etc. - but this info is bound to be ... \(More\) -- #lvguide $18.95. Las Vegas

Delorme Nevada Atlas - This is the one of the latest and best designed atlases in the impressive Delorme series -- long in coming but well worth the wait. Topographic map coverage of the entire state, accompanied by an extensive gazetteer. For the first time, a GPS grid is overlaid on every page, allowing easy reading of latitude/longitude coordinates. The atlas also provides comprehensive local information, including lists of every conceivable attraction and natural landmark. The index of place names is extensive, offering not just the populated places, but all the springs and ghost towns as well. Contains all the geographic data you'll need for a visit to Nevada or for general reference at home. \(More\) -- #denv $16.95. Nevada

Literary Las Vegas by Mike Tronnes - This is a sampler of the best writing about the world's most "fabulous" (i.e. absurd)

city. "Las Vegas has always been a magnet for great writers, drawn to the city for the inspiration of its symbols and characters, and for what it says about us and our society. It doesn't matter if a writer views the town as a cesspool for the crass or a pleasure palace for the masses, this neon outpost and its denizens provide plenty to spark the imagination."
