Regarding "Tonopah Test Range" - Latest First

I was a Camo Dude at TTR

I am retired USAF, and worked at TTR. Great duty, loved every minute of it. Worked/lived four days up, flew back to Las Vegas/NAFB on Key Airlines for four days off! Knew people who went from duty there to Groom Lake. When I was there the contract guards were provided by ASI (Advanced Security Inc) out of Atlanta, not Whackenhut or EG&G. Gotta laugh at what I see on most of these Area 51 pages from the "experts".

Been there

I was at Tonopah test range for JADO/JEZ II, and security is tighter then a nuns privates. Security is constant, and they never take days off. We had to sign statements saying we would not talk about anything we "DID NOT SEE" for the next 75 years. We could not work past 6, and they made us put our radars next to a hill so we could not see dreamland. Two aircraft crashed after they entered dreamland.
