 - ¶ Lazar made up the story on his own based on his own significant technical knowledge, his peripheral work with a contractor on the Nellis Range and the prior Area 51 alien claims of John Lear.... What was Lazar's motivation? Money. Under Theory #1, Lazar cooked up the story to obtain funding from Las Vegas philanthropist Robert Bigelow, who was known to sponsor far-out projects.

¶In a whirl of misunderstanding and conflicting agendas, the promising UFO coalition lavishly funded by Las Vegas businessman Bob Bigelow has come crashing to an end.... The group met every three months, and the last meeting in July, held in Las Vegas, also marked the end of the one-year agreement and time to renew. At that meeting, Bigelow informed Board members that he wanted a vote and veto power. When asked how he planned to apply the power to vote and veto, "he was vague about his answer," a source told UFO [Magazine]; but as the meeting progressed it became apparent he did not agree with the group's choice of projects.
