Regarding "Glenn Campbell" - Latest First

Campbell may have a point about Striber and et al, but Campbell has his problems as well. He is famous for never having seen anything at A-51. Nothing, no hight tech craft, UFOs nothing. Why? He never goes there, and is too afraid to go at night. Glenn Campbell is not a UFO researcher.

Glenn Cambell the Area 51 "pimp"

Glenn, when I become stable with money I want to come work at the Area 51 research center, MY COURIoSITY is my motivation

-- Chris 4/13/97 (#6)

stand up america

There should be more people like Glen Cambell in this country. Everybody closes their eyes when it comes to things like Area 51. When financially ready, I will personely break down the gates to this base and go in live on camera too see whats really giong on. The govt. does not scare me and I will uncover the truth about project blue book/groom lake.

-- shadowmops 2/16/97 (#5)

DEBUNKER

Glenn Campbell is a UFO debunker, and is not interested in the truth. He works for the government himself, and is out to coverup the truth whenever it tries to surface. For example Bob Lazer. He has a much clearer backgroud than does Glenn Campbell. Bob Lazer is interested in the truth and Glenn Campbell is interested in hiding the truth.

Area 51: The Dreamland Chronicles - David Darlington reports on us, the Groom Lake Interceptors. This book covers all the major Area 51 topics and people, including aviation history, UFO lore and the "E.T. Highway." This book describes the background of the secret base, but it is mostly about the sundry characters who lurk along the base's borders. Glenn Campbell, Tom Mahood, Bill Uhouse, Pat & Joe Travis, Tony LeVier, Agent X, Jim Goodall, John Andrews, Anthony Hilder and "Ambassador Merlyn Merlin II" are interviewed, and Darlington takes the tact of letting each character speak for himself. Although no truth is deduced at the end, that's not the point of the book. What we learn about is the fragility of truth. This book unfolds like a sort of murder mystery, in which the reader must look for subtexts in all of the interviews to determine who can be trusted. This is the first published book on Area 51 among several currently in the pipeline, and it will surely be known as the best. --gc #darlington $25.00 - More Info. Area 51 Viewer's Guide - Ver. 4.01 contains milepost logs, maps and lots of practical information for visitors in search of secret aircraft or UFOs on Nevada Highway 375, just across the mountains from the Top Secret Groom Lake base in Central Nevada. Reviews the stories associated with both the UFO and military lore of the area. Contains an extensive annotated bibliography for Bob Lazar, UFOs and Secret Aircraft: all known print, audio and video references through Sept. 93 are included with many quotes. --gc #vg $15.00 - More Info.
