Search for subject keyword

e.g. balloon, Jesus, Sagan, Roswell, Pleiades, etc.

Add a Person or Organization

This form generates a request to the webmaster to create a new "people" page for an individual or organization. To be added to this list, there must multiple existing URLs available for this person -- on more than one server. The webmaster generally responds to requests within a few hours (although it sometimes takes days). Once a page has been added, anyone can attach links to it.

Please confirm, before using this form, that the given person does not already exist on the master list. Also confirm that you already have more than one interesting link for this person that justifies creating a page.

Please supply any information you have...

Use Mixed Upper/Lowercase for all responses.

First Name(s):

Last Name (or organization acronym):

This should be their most commonly known "real" name. (E.g "Bill Cooper" or "Linda Moulton Howe" -- whatever name is most likely to be used by others.) Do not use middle names or initials unless the person commonly uses them. Avoid using code names ("Condor", "Val Valerian", etc.) if their real name is public knowledge. (See below for aliases.)

Principal claim, role or accomplishment that this person is best known for:

(Note: Topics for sorting are added after the ufologist has been created.)

Person is Living, Deceased - Year Died

Place of Residence, if known. (If the person is deceased use last place of active residence.)

• City:

State/Province: (For USA & Canada use 2 uppercase letters only)

- Country: (Use the internet two-letter country code. Canada = "CA")

Home URL:

Page Name:

This is their personal home page or the url of a site they sponsor or that is closely associated with them.

Small Photo:

Aliases

These are pseudonyms, changed names or common variations of their real name that are different enough from the primary name to deserve separate entries on the ufologists index. (E.g. "Milton William Cooper", "Condor") If more than one alias is given, separate them by commas. Do not separate first and last names.

If the assignment of an alias is controversial (i.e. the person himself does not acknowledge that the alias is him), then the alias should be supported by a link in the final page to some document supporting the connection.

Optional: Interesting URL. If this ufologist is not well-known, please give the URL of any interesting web document by or about this person to justifying this record's creation.

(This URL will help us decide if this person should be added to the database.)

Optional: Email Address. If you would like to be informed when this record has been created (or if we decide not to create it), give us your email address:

Notes

1. An email notice will be sent to our staff, who will review the request and add the person to our database if appropriate.
