This user-maintained index page depends on you for new links. If you find any interesting web documents by or about this person, please add them to the user links above. Also, if you find any web search terms that yield better results than those above, add the URL for the full search (on Altavista, etc.).

Got nothing to do? Cruise the Altavista or Metacrawler links above (or any other search engine) and look for interesting and relevant links by or about this person or their work or reflecting on their credibility.

New Mexico Road & Recreation Atlas contains detailed road, relief and land-use maps for all parts of the state, as well as detailed street maps of the largest cities. Ideal for both travel and research. This book actually includes two statewide atlases: One is a set of shaded relief maps; the second is a set of maps in the same scale showing land ownership. Street maps of Albuquerque, Santa Fe, Las Cruces and Roswell are included, along with street indexes for each. This atlas is the equivalent of the Delorme series (which does not yet have a New Mexico atlas), and in many ways it is superior. [gc 12/96] - #nmatlas {2book} $17.95
