Regarding "The Roswell Incident" - Latest First

Roswell-The place of forbidden TRUTH

I believe that something did happen that night and I think that the Government is hiding the truth about what actually happened that night in Roswell, because they will use the alien technology for new weapons to kill, in the case of another World War! Maybe it is true that it was only a weather balloon, maybe this was a desperate need for a coverup to something that is even bigger than Roswell. Maybe they got the rumor going around to get money off the taxes of the merchandise that was/is sold even to this day. So I conclude this cry of hope in the hopes that someday the Government will stop his Encyclopedia of lies and come forth with the truth.

Logical Ufology of Roswell

Roswell has more coverups than the 1947 incident. The government has admitted there was a coverup, just not little green men. The real coverup was Project Mogul. People are looking for explanations. Even if they landed to say high some people wouldn't believe it.

simple thoughts

I believe that Roswell was an actual UFO crash. I say this because there's no point putting three small big-eyed men in a weather balloon and if they did they deserve a heck of an obituary.

Roswell crash "PILOT ERROR"

The most overlooked clue to why the UFO crashed at Roswell is in the elevation of the crash site, about 3600ft. ABOVE SEA LEVEL. The pilot of the craft had probably set the craft's on-board program from sea level - a common pilot error on this planet today that has caused many accidents.
