Alien Sources for Human Technology

Claims that alien knowledge has been introduced into human technology, such as electronics, Stealth aircraft, etc. The extreme view says that all major human innovations were actually alien technology secretly given to large corporations by the government.

Regarding "Alien Sources for Human Technology" - Latest First

Life and Times Of Silicon Chip

This article does little to discredit any claim that the Transistor did not come from reverse engineering of parts recovered from a downed alien craft. Something was recovered in the darkness and with armed soldiers and carted off in trucks. Parts were then shipped to several labs for analysis. Whos to say what all came from this? Including Stealth!
