- US Scientists Probe Australian Desert Mystery - Article reprint - By Dan Brekke - Published: 5/28/97 - Source: Wired Magazine <9/8/97 #21>
"The best explanation for the thing that desert gold miners and truck drivers saw cross the sky and vanish in a flash the night of 28 May 1993 was likely a 2- or 3-meter-diameter meteorite"
- Daytime Meteor Alarms West Texans - News article - Published: 10/10/97 - Source: AP <11/10/97 #22>

"It wasn't the end of the world. It just looked like it to the people who saw a cosmic fireworks show over Southwest skies. A meteor streaking through midday skies above West Texas and New Mexico on Thursday sent residents scurrying to their phones to report what many feared was an airplane exploding or some kind of aerial collision."

- Geological Mysteries on Ganymede - An unusual surface structure on Ganymede, discovered on a now released image photographed by the GALILEO probe, is subject of much debate among planetary scientists. - Photo - Published: 11/22/97 <11/22/97 #23>
  - Grooved Terrain in Nippur Sulcus on Ganymede - An other Ganymede mystery: Does there exist a tower like object on the central peak of the meteorite crater (close to the right side of the foto) - or is it an image artifact only? - Research report - Published: 11/21/97 <11/22/97 #23.1>
- Armageddon seen in 2097 - Thai astronomer claims Tempel-Tuttle will (or won't) collide with Earth in 2097 (14 para) - News article - Published: 11/13/98 - Source: The Nation (Newspaper) <11/17/98 #25>
Thai newspaper The Nation surprised Art Bell and Richard Hoagland by linking this article to their websites. That night, Art claimed the story also "ran on UPI, AP... and on and on and on." The Nation article contains some puzzling contradictions. A purported copy of the more pessemistic UPI article is posted at: <http://x7.dejanews.com/getdoc.xp?AN=411401397&CONTEXT=911354586.1729167387&hitnum=0>

Reader Comments

Regarding "Unusual Comets and Space Objects" - Latest First

what is the object moving into universe?

The news reported that there was an object coming into are universe that looked like a planet. does anyone have any information on this?

wearable meteorites

Falling meteorites may produce fear but aerospace engineer Jeff Murphy feels that the energy from meteorites is nothing to be afraid of. In fact, while testing meteorites for Nasa and other organizations, Jeff discovered the resulting dust particles to be quite cosmic. He now puts them in a vial and wears them. Write me for more info.

Another daytime meteor?

I am looking for information and i'm not sure where to look. I filmed what looks like a meteor falling but slowly. I have it on film for about 2 minutes. Is this impossible? I can't imagine what else this could be. It happened on Nov. 23 at about 4:30pm. It seems to be steadily falling and then curves at the end. I live in Long Valley, NJ.
