Reader Comments

Regarding "Animal Mutilations" - Latest First

Mutilations and Government Radiation Testing

Animal sample recovery is performed by the gov't to study cows and other animals grazing on lands under which the U.S. gov't performed nuke weapon tests. Soft tissue (most readily show the effects of radiation) of random specimens are taken and studied by Uncle Sam to check the rad level of these 'hot areas'. Just think, we could be eating grain or beef that has been fried in a way we could only imagine!

-- Derek R. 10/20/99 (#4)

ALIENS OR A PARA-MILITARY OPERATION ?

Mute investigators should not underestimate the resources of the Government. I would not rule out the possibility of this being a para-military operation in conjunction with the Department of Energy. It Certainly could be an Alien Intelligence, but it is also equally possible that the "Aliens" are the perfect cover story for a truly horrendous environmental problem being evaluated by the U.S. Gov.

Visit a new web-site devoted to The San Luis Valley

Space fans! There IS a new site that provides up-to-the minute reports from the The Mysterious Valley in CO/NM UFOs, Unusual Animal Deaths (UADs) secret military activity, paranormal cases, religious miracles, folklore, bigfoot, + more! Special Investigations and intrigue. You've heard about the SLV, now keep informed re: one of the USA s true hotspots. The world's largest alpine valley has quite a collection of anomalous phenomena.

-- Christopher O'Brien/tmv (tmv@rmi.net) 2/14/97 (#2)

Animal Mutilations?

Check out the February 97 issue of GQ (Gentleman's Quarterly) for an article discussing animal mutilations. Is the issue solved? Is Ms. Howe another huckster?
