Hello everyone,

Solar flare will hit earth on Wednesday, April 9, 1997 Is this similar to the flare that took out Telstar 4? Has the sun been recently hit by a projectile?

After hearing the announcement on CNN of the solar flare about to splash earth, I downloaded a gif construction of solar images from the last 48 hours from LASCO ( <http://lasco-www.nrl.navy.mil/rtmovies.html> ). To my shock I observed an anomalous object move slowly in from the lower left hand corner on direct linear course into the face of the sun, followed by what appears to be a sudden burst on impact.

Anyway, I have the gif image and the anomaly clearly marked on a new page at:

<http://www.in-search-of.com/frames/events/sol.html>

THIS, is worth seeing before we get hit tomorrow. I wonder if this is why the Shuttle Mission was cancelled. I don't think I would want to be up there right now!

Respectfully,

Dr. R. Daniel Woolman
