Subject: Re: Colonel Weaver's Skeptical Report

A couple of questions I have regarding Weaver's Mogul Report:

1. Why was the "revised" testimony of CIC officer Cavitt used after he told investigators for years that he had nothing do do with the events at Roswell?
2. Why were only a small handful of witnesses interviewed for the report when tapes of the other witnesses were politely provided by various UFO organizations?
3. Why did the official log contain no mention of a flight, or its subsequent loss? You claim that unsuccessful flights weren't recorderd, but elsewhere in the log they are mentioned (I'm not as sure about this question's accuracy, but I included it anyway.). Why is this so?
4. Was there really reason to cover up the crash of a Mogul baloon when nobody in Roswell knew what it was? Was it's design so obvious that a average joe would notice it's top secret purpose?
5. Why do you ignore the statments of Brig. General Thomas DuBose, who says that the entire Roswell baloon story was a cover-up? Wasn't he in a position to know better than the other people cited in the report?

These are just preliminary, and I've gotta run, so if anybody has any changes, corrections, or deletions please add them!

Regards,
Scott K. Hale
