I THINK it was mentioned that he thought he had been led down the primrose path, so to speak, concerning the Working Group. I have not spoken directly with Howard Blum, but have an acquaintance who is in contact with him, who reported this to me. It's been at least 5 years since I read the book and frankly, I don't remember specifics about it. Blum is said to be working on some science ficiton scripts. Next time I speak to my friend, I will try to get more information.
