List Members--

My wife is urging me to supplement Jan's summation of Halt's talk last Saturday. Halt did say that some personnel suffered medical aftereffects, but he qualified this banal statement to say that he did not receive the same treatment as other witnesses due to the fact that he had powerful friends in many places.

The chilling portion of his statement was that many other witnesses were subject to "special treatment and injections." Stupidly, none of us followed up with any questions about this. But it's all on (digital) tape and eventually will be made available.
