Open letter to Kal K. Korff, SCICOP and Prometheus Books,

As I understand it your argument against Ray Santilli's copyright on the images from the alien autopsy film that you have used in your books is that these photos are in the public domain.

Now, let's get this straight. They are in the public domain because the cameraman was employed by the US Government when he shot them, right. And that puts them in the public domain.

Hey, wait a munute, by arguing this aren't you arguing that the film is real, and the cameraman's story true???

If the film is a hoax created by Ray Santilli, then there is absolutely no question that he owns the copyright to the images.

You can't have it both ways.
