Subject: 'Rods' Shot by Professional Videographer

Notice how much these stills from video resemble the numerous people video taping using the solar filming techniques and other taping in other areas of the sky. Check it out at Jose Escamilla's web site at:

<http://www.roswellrods.com/int.html>

They are very amazing pictures videoed in a cave in Mexico at the same time base jumpers are free falling. There is also detailed descriptions of the sequences and more information on the mysterious rods.
