Lord Hill-Norton's NEXUS Vol 3 No.6 Oct - Nov 96

Subject: Lord Hill-Norton's NEXUS Vol 3 No.6 Oct - Nov 96

I got to know Hill-Norton during the review of Good's alien liaison.[See Lobster 23].

His foreword seemed to have un-necessarily upset some of his own colleagues - ADM Bobby Inmann, and RADM Sumner Shapiro [both well-known in intelligence circles].

Hill-Norton's response, and his knowledge of ufo's [taped conversation] was [and maybe still is] limited to what Good and then Oechsler used to feed him.

In the course of one conversation Hill-Norton called Inman and Shapiro liars. Shapiro's [ex-ONI director] response [taped-conversation] was that as sad as it is for a fellow colleague; Hill-Norton seems to becoming senile. A point on which I tend to concur with Sam to some extent.

Hill-Norton also failed to answer to some serious questions put to him, whilst both his colleagues and many others, allegedly involved in Cosmic Journey - another blockbuster for Good - answered my correspondence, and later in the course of my trips to The Pentagon, we met, to further iron out discrepancies there.

The public loves sensation - fiction - doomsday material, and there are many who are glad to oblige and enjoy from the derived benefits as well as profit.

RE: Rockefeller's report

I could mail this substantial report, sent to me long ago - if there is an absolute need. It did not impress me. Regurgitated old material. R. seem to be playing his role pretty well - keeping both camps happy.

RE: C. Sagan.

I concur with Mr. Shell's comment.
A little BI would be rewarding Mr. Shell.

A. Victorian
