> Dear Col;

> I'm currently in a unique position , in that I've had daily professional > / personal contact for the past three weeks with a Senior U.S.
> Congressman.

> Being a long time UFO " buff ", I decided to probe a little bit to see > what he was willing to tell me. I " flat out " asked him the other day :
> "Why is the Government covering up this UFO thing ?" He seemed a little > taken aback by this question, and proceeded with a long chuckle. "Well, > let me tell you " , he said, " While I was chairing the intelligence > committee - this UFO question came up , and we investigated it. We > didn't find anything to it." He laughed a little more, and said:"There's > just no hard evidence ...I think this UFO controversy is brought on by > people who - just want to believe." He smiled at me and shook his head a > little ; making me feel as though I was asking silly questions. I must > admit , he did seem genuine in his disbelief. However , I also had the > "gut" feeling that he was holding something back.

> I don't want to appear brash, or insolent , and therefore I'm unsure if > I should pursue this topic with him. Perhaps , your forum readers will > have some suggestions for me as to what to do next , if anything ?
> Should I offer him documents ? If so , what documents ? Could this help > to advance the "cause" to end Govt. secrecy? I have two more weeks of > business with this gentleman.

> Any suggestions / thoughts would be appreciated.

> Sincerely
