Which, on the face of it, is wildly silly. We know that the US gov't has a number of files on so-called UFOs that they won't publically release - they won't even release the reason why they won't release the files.

What was Cash-Landrum??? My personal opinion is that Cash-Landrum was our gov't playing around with nuclear propulsion, we got caught and tried to cover that up (because at the time there were, still are, various treaties and agreements not to do that).

But until the US gov't comes forward with a documented and verifiable explanation for Cash-Landrum we have no choice except to accept the eyewitnesses description of the unidentified flying object.....

>That lead Brian to suspect that Peter is employed by counterintelligence

There are some people who think that all non-ETH-believers are therefore automatically gov't secret agents. Since about half the population (or more) are non-ETH-believers it must be assumed that we're doing this for free too...<grin>

Yep, sure is.

According to some, yes.
