Subject: Autopsy Cameraman photos

Errol and all,

It's no secret that most of us here on the list have seen the Santilli alien autopsy CAMERAMAN photos that have been floating around in cyberspace.

I

'm surprised that there hasn't been any discussion about them here except for a short blurb by Bob Shell.

I read in a post from Bob that this is the man who claimed to have filmed the alien autopsy, but that he is not Jack Barnett. Maybe Bob would like to comment further about these photos. What is Ray's reaction to them being sent all over the internet? I'm also curious to learn if Bob has seen the actual video of the interview with this alleged cameraman.

My observations... The man in the photos seems to be wearing glasses in the enhanced photo, but doesn't seem to be wearing any in the unenhanced photo.

I wonder...did he remove his glasses during the interview or am i wrong about the no glasses? It also looks to me like he has either a mole or some kind of growth on the right side of his face near the mouth. What is that? The man in the photo looks like he could be 80 to me.

I think this might turn out to be the first REAL lead we've had on this controversial issue in a long time. I think that learning the identity of this alleged cameraman might possibly be our last chance to learn the truth and genesis of this film.

What do you think?

Regards,
Bill Ralls
