Subject: Alfred's Odd Ode # 84

Apology to MW #84 (For January 27, 1997)=20

I should take a moment to try to put right
A smeary campaign of dis-info in sight.
Laurence Rockefeller is not a rich 'spook'.
He=92s not a 'new-ager', he=92s not an old 'kook'.

He rates the least in the way of some others,
Those that have cheated their sisters, and brothers.
He spoke out real early as regards the environment.
He stood enlightened when there was no requirement.

He=92s used his endowment to look at the mystery.
He shoots full of holes our contrived human history.
He=92s feared as a card-player that just won=92t stand pat!
He=92s gutsy, got savvy, and he wears different hats!

He=92s greasing the rails that will lead to new finds.
He=92s lifting us up, he=92s broadening our minds.
If even John Mack drives up with a load. . .
Even if Greer turns from prince to a toad. . .

He=92s got the moxy to be culture=92s enema,
When others are moaning, "Oh hummina-hummina. . ."
Relief will be ours, perhaps due this old coot <g>;
And of this I am sure, as sure=92s I=92m not Newt!

So, as hard as it is to respect the big money,
Find "Rocky L." to be one =91twas not funny.
He canted a way perhaps good for us all.
Perhaps he=92s the reason we=92ll all stop our crawl!

Lehmborg@snowhill.com

The only advice I could offer the gentleman is that he put Rebecca Schatte on his payroll with all deliberate speed. She=92s got time, drive, and an acerbic imagination. She is not a fool to be underestimated, quickly judged, or casually dismissed =96 much like L. Rockefeller.
