Rebecca asked...

>Isn't there something called "Fair Use" where you can extract a certain >number of words (I think 200 for printed matter for review purposes) or say a >certain number of frames for review purposes. I see in the American magazine
>"People Weekly" that they have a frame captured from a Larry King TV show in >an article about the death of Bill Cosby's son. The credit says: Courtesy >CNN. Couldn't that same thing be done for Mr. Santilli's cameraman? Of >course, who would you credit, the Japanese or Orbital?

*I did ask Santilli, but he replied "We really wish to hold back use of the Cameraman's image until May. You may find this strange in view of the Japanese broadcast, but you should know that the transmission was the result of a misunderstanding."
