Quote of the Week

"Probably in another decade, another colonel will be out here explaining this thing again."

-- Defense Department Spokesmen Ken Bacon (who apparently has irony-poor blood) commenting on the Air Force's "Case Closed" report issued earlier this week seeking to end speculation about the Roswell Incident.

Rant of the Week: "A Lick of 'Sence'"

Every week we pick the wackiest, scariest, nastiest or funniest rant from the hundreds of letters received by us here at ParaScope headquarters, and present it to you as our Rant of the Week. This week, Fabre lambastes us for jamming his printer with one of our articles. Enjoy!

"Hello,I was printing your article on "Order of skull and bones". My printer is now stuck!!,paper is half in,half out,I don't find this amusing in any respect.Can you please respond as soon as possible,as the trouble did't originate from my end.Hope someone with a lick of sence replys Great website inspite."

[Reprinted with spelling and grammar goofs unchanged. Names changed to protect the ranters.]

Featured Chats: UFO Experts Invade Grassy Knoll

During our special cybercast July 3 - 5 from the Roswell UFO Festival, ParaScope is pleased to announce that a stellar array of UFO experts, personalities and commentators will be stopping by the Grassy Knoll on AOL to chat with the world. Though our line-up is subject to change, current plans call for us to play host to Robert O. Dean, Michael Lindemann, Dr. John Mack, Rod Skenandore, Bud Hopkins, Stanton Friedman, Donald Schmitt and Linda Moulton Howe throughout the festival. Watch for details on the guests, the cybercast and everything else Roswell related as we approach the big event.

Also, join us in the Crop Circle, ParaScope's web-based chat room every Saturday night at 9pm ET for great times and good conversation.

A&E Network Broadcasts "Conspiracies" June 29

A reminder to everyone that a two-hour documentary, "Conspiracy," will feature a number of authors, experts and pundits in the field discussing everything from JFK to LSD. "Conspiracies" airs on the A&E cable network Sunday, June 29 at 9pm on the east coast, 9pm on the west coast. Central and Mountain viewers, sadly, will have to consult their local listings.

Coming Up Next Week!

ParaScope is on the road and headed for Roswell, New Mexico to cover the 50th anniversary of the Roswell Incident. We'll be cybercasting live from the middle of all the action as we create a "tent city" in the middle of Roswell, camping out and burning the midnight oil to bring you all the action.

This week, we present the greatest round-up of Roswell-related stories on the web as we gather classic Roswell stories from our archives and add plenty of new Roswell material during the live event. But don't worry, we'll continue bringing you plenty of great other stories on both our AOL and web sites.

Catch all these stories right now on the home page of our web site or at keyword: roswell on AOL:

Why Roswell Won't Go Away

Kevin Randle won't let Roswell die. And he's just the man to keep it alive -- although some may view him as a desperate paramedic who won't give up on a patient already gone cold. Find out why this veteran ufologist still believes an alien craft crashed in New Mexico.

The 1995 Air Force Roswell Report

Something crashed near Roswell and was recovered by military authorities in 1947. In its 1995 report on the incident, the Air Force asserts that it wasn't an alien spacecraft at all, but rather a top secret balloon project named MOGUL.

GAO Report on Roswell Documents

Feeling that he was "getting the runaround" in his quest for information, Rep. Steven Schiff asked the General Accounting Office to prepare a report on the status of government documents relating to the Roswell Incident. Find out what the GAO uncovered.

The Berlin Memorandum

The Roswell Incident was more than a crashed string of balloons made out of balsa wood and flower-painted tape. That's what Joachim Koch and Hans-Juergen Kyborg of the International Roswell Initiative believe, and they want you to sign onto the Berlin Memorandum.

Karl Pflock on Roswell

Karl Pflock has a bone to pick with Stanton Friedman. In this open letter, Pflock carpet-bombs Friedman for what he described as "grossly misrepresenting" his views on the Roswell Incident.
