The Black Vault website supplies the largest source of FOIA material available.

It has been available to all, free of charge.

Because of vast increases in meg space and computer equipment that needs replacing now, donations are needed immediately to keep Black Vault records available.

If you have been disturbed by government agencies and the military not supplying information, feeling you could do nothing to correct that, here is your chance to help uncover details, by keeping the files of Black Vault operational. Money is needed now to keep vital responses of Freedom of Information Act requests filed for use of UFO/ET researchers. Sending a donation is something you can really do about government cover-ups.

A post from Brian Zinkle bzinkle@mwt.net is reproduced below:

Unlike the U.S. government, whose documents John makes available to us, The Black Vault cannot employ deficit spending. Neither can it appeal to the International Monetary Fund for a loan. In short, the funding of the Black Vault is largely up to its users, you and me.

Not all of us can easily afford to make large contributions, but if most of us don't make some sort of contribution, it is highly likely that John will have to close the Vault's doors in the near future. What will be the effect of this? His crusade to make the U.S. government's grudgingly released UFO files available to everyone worldwide will have been defeated. I would not be surprised if this pleases certain powers that be. Personally, I prefer government exposed to the bright light of day.

John has sacrificed a great deal of time, money, and effort to give this gift to the world. Now it is time for us to make some sacrifices. Even a small contribution shows where you stand on this issue, larger contributions make it exceedingly clear that you think that we, the people, have a Need to Know.

John, my personal check is in the mail. If some "dark force" intercepts it, I want you to scream bloody murder! 8^)

Please address your checks, money orders (preferably not cash), and mail to John Greenewald, Jr.:
