Karl T. Pflock on Greenwood's CAUS resignation

 Subject: Karl T. Pflock on Greenwood's CAUS resignation

Jan,

Thx for sharing Barry's resignation letter and the sample of reactions to same. I dropped Barry a brief snail-mail note on 1/23 congratulating him on his decision. Below is a more substantive reaction (I'll snail a copy to Barry). Please feel free to post it wherever you like and share it with whomever you like.

Cheers,

KARL

Barry Greenwood's careful, thoughtful, and honest approach has been a touchstone and heartening candle in the dark chaos of contemporary ufology, and I concur 100% in Pierre Lagrange's comments. With his resignation from CAUS, Barry once again raises a standard to which everyone in the field concerned about the absurd excesses plaguing ufology and dedicated to the serious investigation and study of UFO phenomena can repair.

I look forward to the first issue of "UFO Historical Review" and hope it may grow and evolve into a journal which may become the focus of responsible ufology, a place where those who agree UFO phenomena are important and deserve serious study, regardless of their own particular "take" on the subject, can publish and debate and advance knowledge as true colleagues. As Peirre observed, the gulf between "sane UFO researchers/historians [ufology] and the true believers [UFODumb]" is growing each day. Now's the time for the "sane" to cooperate to assure this process leads to a renaissance of ufology unencumbered by fads and foolishness.

Yours for a renewed ufology,

Karl Pflock
