UFO UpDates Mailing ListHousekeeping

 Subject: Housekeeping

Apologies for no-mail these past 24 hours.

Seems my ATI Mach 64 video-card and Soundblaster AWE 64 having lived, grudgingly, together since October of last year are now duking it out. (Sorry, Peat!) Does anyone know why SB insists on loading the Emulation driver which then disables the audio-card in Win95?

The resulting chaos, not being able to do multi-track mixing/editing, having Computer Doctor here and trying to figure out the Gates-Factors precluded any mail-runs. Mail may be slightly delayed again today - another house-call.
