Hi Skye

>Sean, don't even start. Someone very innocently made the same >statement a few weeks ago (where were you?)

Busy working at a new job and trying to write a book, whilst juggling all this with generally trying to have a life.

>and it resulted in the >submission of hundreds of non-U.S. sightings reports to this list.

This list as EBK points out is global and I have had many reports (via the net) myself from Russia, Yugoslavia, Israel, Texas to name but a few places.

>[Hundreds? (where was _I_? Non-U.S.? This _Canadian_ List goes > world-wide -- ebk]

>No one believes these things happen only in the U.S.,

I'm afraid you missed my point :-(

>and if you read
>any of the UFO newsletters on the Net, it's abundantly clear.

I know, it is very clear.
