I truly hope that the day has now arrived when most of us stop reading as soon as "confidential" sources and names "I cannot divulge" well up before our eyes, in support of wild and unlikely claims drenched in paranoia and conspiracy. Nonetheless, I couldn't help myself. I did read the following paragraph because it sounded so strangely familiar:

> Some of the scientists had been shown things that changed their > perspective of life and, in almost all cases, greatly disturbed > them emotionally and basically destroyed their personal body of > beliefs and changed their axiology (philosophy of values).
> According to the source, they had been shown, from ships to > corpses of aliens.

On April 16, 1954, an astral traveler named Gerald Light (aka "Dr. Kappa") wrote occult theorist N. Meade Layne to report his out-of-body observation of scientists observing a crashed and retrieved spacecraft, with occupants, at Edwards AFB in California. Light averred that he had seen "human beings in a state of complete collapse and confusion as they realized that their own world had indeed ended with such finality as to beggar description." See my The Emergence of a Phenomenon, pp. 117-18, for further details.

The point is simply this: that whoever made up the story Mr. Lopez is passing on, he cannot be accused of having a creative imagination. Besides being a BS artist, his informant is a plagiarist. It appears that even liars have fallen on hard times.
