Sure Mike...Please guys, I'm getting rather tired of this kind of comment...IFologists...give me a break!

Why don't you look to the 10 percent we can't explain instead of keep going on and on about the cases any RESEARCHER has thrown aside anyway.

But maybe that's why I think there's nothing wrong with terms like UFO-researcher or ufologist, the only problem is that everybody can call himself one, regardless whether they have done some serious lookin' in to the subject or not.
