Subject: Crazy Week

Dear List:

Some very strange shit has been going down this week. The May 21, 1998 issue of USA Today, page C-1, reported that the Galaxy 4 satellite performed its unauthorized yaw maneuver while over the central USA sometime Tuesday evening, May 19th.

Question: what day, date and time did the SETI crew in southern Illinois pick up that "spike" transmission?

There were an awful lot of UFO sightings on Tuesday night, in Michigan, Indiana, Ohio and in Adelaide, S.A. Australia.

We seem to be moving a little beyond the realm of coincidence here.
