The Real Issue.....

Subject: The Real Issue.....

Why are they here....?

Every day I receive half a million accounts describing UFOs of one form or another but what is the latest thinking on the undercurrent behind the phenomenon, i.e. the "abductees"..... beyond the obvious forms of immediate discomfort from such a traumatic event-how do they "feel" about the experience? What is the message imparted to them about the aliens presence here on Earth....?

Personally I think we can look at the avalanche of evidence to take it as read that the authorities have been keeping a good number of secrets about this phenomenon. I think the smart ufologist needs to move beyond this line of - dare I say -"dated" approach and second guess the next move. Or even series of moves. In that way, better mentally prepare themselves for what the future might hold
