I don't know that anyone has ever lost a pension, but I have talked to retired military people, who say they were threatened with such if they talked about some of the things they were associated with...

I once made a trip to Marysville, Kansas to talk with a Retired Air Force officer, who allegedly "escorted" a UFO which was having mechanical problems...

However, when I got there, He would not talk to me...It had been arranged by a friend of mine who lived in Marysville...Later, my friend told me he talked to the man again after I had returned home, and he told him he could not risk losing his pension at his advanced age...
