Dear Mr. Aldrich:

In the interest of clarity let me respond to your comments and hopefully ease your mind and others about the authenticity efforts by Wood & Wood around the MJ-12 documents. Our focus is on quality, thoroughness and validation.

Jan Aldrich writes:

>>The MJ-12 Saga Continues, Greenwood Addresses New MJ-12 Documents In The Next UHR

>>Once again, extraordinary claims are being made involving >>a number of documents shoved into Tim Cooper's mail box.

Really, what claims are those above and beyond the documents themselves?

>>These second generation MJ-12 document highly promoted by >>Dr. Robert Wood and his son attract new people to the MJ-12 >>morass. The Woods claim that by looking at the content of the >>documents they can determine the authenticity of the material. >>Provenance is irrelevant to these proponents.

This is statement is inaccurate. We are looking at all aspects of authenticity, typography, content, style chirography, provenance and difficulty in fakery. In no way are we focusing on only a few elements. Now you may believe that we are because that is all the information you have seen or understood.

Let me say that we have hundreds of pages of further detailed analysis that we have not yet published.

On the provence front, Tim Cooper just agreed to take a lie detector test on The Mike Jarmus Show after Bob Durant asked him to.

>>All doubt has been >>answered about the MJ-12 documents, or so we are to believe.

Were do you get that impression? There are still many man years of additional work to be done. Do you want some assignments?

How about find every soldier in the 9393 TSU (400+) in 1947 and interview them or there children. There are other less daunting tasks as well.

>>So while most of ufology does not yet accept the extravagant >>claims for the new MJ-12 documents, there are many new people >>who find these documents compelling.

Excuse me, Aldrich...most of ufology? Who are you to speak for ufology? Did you do a survey and have a majority opinion?

>>The documents are actively >>promoted on Art Bell and on other radio shows, and on the >>Internet.

This is a good thing. It allows everyone to read and understand for themselves.

>>Barry Greenwood will devote the next UFO Historical Revue to >>problems and flaws in the new MJ-12 documents. It will probably >>be in the mail next week.

We look forward to any serious objections, I doubt very much that any objection that may be raised we have not already heard of before. Very likely we will have already performed a detailed analysis that addresses serious objections.

Remember that we have been studying and researching these documents for nearly two years.

It is sad in my mind that Greenwood has not contacted us to further clarification of his opinions and investigations so that the UFO community can continue to have the best possible information discussed in public forums such as UHR.
