Apology to MW #308 (For July 17, 1999)

It's about the individual, and the progress that is made in pursuit of efficacious satisfaction. It's better than the group, in fact defines the groups complacency as it practices group meanness and detraction. And in no way will it matter that it suffers for its task, though it greases sullen gears it has designed. Its labors often punished as it hurdles common fear, and elevates us all, we often find. It follows different rhythms it has beat against indifference that the sheeple have contrived as so inspired!

But the satisfactions missing from the short sight of our ways, and we rape our mother world for all the comfort she can pay.

When it suffers ostracization that is sure to come its way (for no good deed can go, therefore, unpunished) it is left to its devices that it makes up on its own, and it stays a little lonely, but astonished. It only wants what's righteous for the spirit's celebration. It wants to look beyond the common pale. It wants the elevation but it wants to know the price. It wants to know the secrets and the tales. It's wants to see a UFO, and question small grey men -- or the reptiles or the Nordics, come what may!

It will do this for the difference -- the novelty implied. It will do it for advancement, and it will not be denied.

We could let these spacemen push us past the limits we now share that are foolish and contrived but self imposed. The truth of their existence is admitted by the egg heads, but they can't admit they're here, they're indisposed. UFO's are REAL friend. You'd see them if you looked -- if you pulled the scabrous scales from your eyes. But to rail at the scales is to suffer for your sin, and it's you that's disrespected and despised. The evidence is massive, but it's picked apart by slugs, and hidden by the liars, cheats and thieves.

It is these that suck the power from the marrow of your bones, as they warp your sensibility to make you think that you're alone.

I want to know the truth that is -- though heaven cracks and falls, or the wisdom of the ages falls apart. If the heavens shatter quickly than they GOT their just desserts -- they were empty of their meaning from the start. It is foolish to assume that we will stay within our womb, and ignore the deep expanse of time and space. To assume that they are there is common sense of rare refinement, and a steadfast change of course to find our grace. I won't be hammered down to suit mere skeptibunky clowns -- cretins that won't see beyond their noses.

It's our future way up there that stares from space, and is unblinking. Are YOU to turn your back on it, and ape a cowards thinking?

And NO! You shall not waver in your task exposing terror that has crippled and confined you to this day. And No! You shall not suffer vapid christians phony postures as they scrape you from their shoe, but make you pay. And NO, you are no coward! You are bravery unrestricted! You are talent, strength and passion unconfined! If you but slipped the bonds of that which binds you unremitting, you would win your freedom's bounty you would find.
And changing is the thing, the course to center (seeking balance) you deserve for heating water, doing work . . .

So, NO! You are no shirker, but you'll make your grievance known! It's you, the individual! It's been YOU, and you alone!

Lehmberg@snowhill.com

But for you, and your effort -- society crumbles. You deserve a respect and a forthcoming-ness for your labor that in NOT coming your way. Perceive this as a . . . as a mechanism of unethical design.
