Okay guys, time to get a life. If this kind of 'crap' is going to be dragged into ufology, or any other field associated with discovery of our origins and other life forms, I would prefer to not even hear from Bell, Oates, Stephens, or any other individual who hopes to make a buck this way, or thrive off defaming another. If you have proof of what you all say is going on or not going on or whatever you're causing a 'stink' about and accusing one another of, present it, deal with it and get along little doggie.

It sure as hell ain't gettin us any further to the truth and your 'truths' are only interfering with the real tasks at hand, which by the way are far more important than your na na na na's.

Stop acting like you do work for the government.

Sue Kovios
