UFOINFO Progress Report

 Subject: UFOINFO Progress Report

Dear Errol and List Members,

The server the UFOINFO site is on is now back online but I have to wait until my new password has been installed for security reasons.

The latest report suggests that all or most of the files have been lost so a complete upload of the site will be necessary. As there are around 800 pages and many images in use it will probably take a few hours to complete.

Due to the cost of phone calls in the UK it means I will have to wait until the weekend before this can be done.

My apology for the inconvenience.

John Hayes
