Jerry: I have only one source for that event, Phenomena Spatiaux (the defunct quarterly) issue #25 from decades ago.

That account indicated some unknown day in May of 1933. Do you have a better source which firms up the June first date for 1933?

If so, I would like to use that date since it is more precise.

Incidentally, the PS account described two black sausage shapes which hovered in the wind, expanding and contracting as if breathing. [ All of this on the assumption that I translated properly of course. ] If there were wings attached, they didn't get into my highly abbreviated listing.

Best wishes

- Larry Hatch
