Sorry for butting in, but...

It seems to me that the only people re-hashing classic UFO cases are those who are absolutely skeptical about UFOs, have never seen one (or more) or who just don't want to accept that earth is being visited by (several) alien cultures from elsewhere.

To me, this re-hashing of classic cases (whether it's Kenneth Arnold, Lonnie Zamorra, or the Paul Trent photo case) seems pointless.

One day, we will all be straightened out, and I, for one, hope to be vindicated for the 14 separate sightings I have had.

The time is long overdue for earthlings to know the truth about flying saucers, UFOs, whatever you want to call them.

Cordially,

Michel M. Deschamps

UFO Researcher/Historian
