Hi,

My congratulations also to Kevin. The Randle/s are coming.
Beware.

As to Satanic Ritual Abuse - my friend and frequent co-author has plenty of experience, not as a satanist I had better add knowing how these things get out of hand on the net (!), but as a researecher into withcraft. He has written an excellent book on this topic. As a UK abduction researcher too (who uses hypnosis by the way as hes never been a BUFORA member but fulfills my moral rule by only doing so through and under constant supervision of a clinical psychologist) he's been seeking the parallels with SRA and with bogus social worker cases which he also considers relevant. There is some material on this in his book (pompously titled - not by him I should add) - 'The truth about alien abductions' (Cassell, UK - I believe distributed in the US by Sterling). Also theres a chapter in our joint book - 'The Encylopedia Of The Unexplained' (Michael O'Mara).

We are currently working on another book together (our 11th if I counted right) which is called 'Supernatural Causes?' and investigates deaths and injuries attributed to the supernatural. Peter is planning something in there on the patterns with such cases, I believe, although its early days in the project to be sure what will get into the final cut.

Peter is not yet on the net (I've tried to persuade him) but anyone keen to pursue this research could write or call/fax to:
