Hi all,

I've just joined the list and I must say I'm impressed looking back over the archives at some of the thought provoking conversations.

As far as I'm concerned John, if Doug and Dave had created so many crop circles it would have been done by Doug Dave & Co. Surly two guy's on their own couldn't have achieved so much.

I would also like to know how these two old Southampton men knew how to gain access to the world media.

You're quite right about the 'ol loop on a baseball cap trick, you could walk a wavy line and still keep the church roof in view.

Of course there are hoaxers and some of them are quite good at what they do but this poses another question. If Doug and Dave were sponsored in order to stop the hordes from trampling over the evidence why not choose someone who can make a convincing circle instead of these two who probably couldn't write their names in the snow.

Dave.
